Presented by
The Centre for Clergy Care & Congregational Health
in partnership with St. Stephen's College

Making the Most of Retirement!

This event will address the following questions:

- What spiritual, psychological and emotional work is required to make the transition from 'active ministry' into retirement?
- How do the roles and responsibilities of 'active ministry' differ from vocation to ministry?
- How may our spiritual and vocational experiences of life shape this next stage of our lives?
- How do we discover our 'greater work', by which we may continue to live out our vocation to Christian ministry?
- What possibilities and potential do the retirement years hold?

Learning activities will include small and large group discussions, worship, personal reflection, body movement, imagery exercises, journaling and music.

Mary Helen Garvin – Mary Helen is a former nurse and missionary to Taiwan and worked as a psychotherapist for 20 years before retiring in August 2003. She has also worked as a transition consultant, a workshop leader, and on the staff of the Toronto Institute for Human Relations. A life-long member of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, she has served as an elder and on Theological Guidance Conference teams.

Dale Irving

Dale is an ordained minister with The United Church of Canada who has served the church for 43 years. He retired from active ministry in 2008. He was the Conference Personnel Minister for Alberta and Northwest Conference for 12 years, and currently serves on the Presbytery Personnel Committee of Edmonton Presbytery. Dale has considerable experience in working with groups and is a 'team player' who brings understanding and sensitivity to all of his work.
