

CENTRE FOR REFUGEE STUDIES

CERIS – The Ontario Metropolis Centre and the Centre for Refugee Studies

Present a Public Seminar

Economic and social integration of the immigrant second generation in Canada

Wednesday, November 3, 2010

12:30 pm – 2:00pm

Presenter: Jeffrey Reitz-CERIS U of T Director, Professor of Ethnic, Immigration and Pluralism Studies Program, University of Toronto

Dr. Reitz has conducted extensive research about immigrant integration in Canada and other countries continue to examine the employment experiences of immigrant and ethnic populations. His current work focuses on how the emergence of the new knowledge-based economies of Canada, the US, and Australia affects trends in immigrant employment success and experiences over time, including the second generation. Dr. Reitz is also continuing his research on the impact of diversity on national cohesion, using the 2002 Ethnic Diversity Survey.

Location: Room 519 York Research Tower- York University (See link to the Map)
http://www.yorku.ca/yorkweb/maps/Keele\_Jun2010\_cmyk.pdf

Please RSVP to cerisadm@yorku.ca

This seminar is free and open to the public.
Seminar presentations are posted on our website after the event,
to view please visit: <http://ceris.metropolis.net>