

THE 2012 LIONEL GELBER PRIZE

CALL for SUBMISSIONS

The Lionel Gelber Prize was founded in 1989 by Canadian diplomat Lionel Gelber. The prize is a literary award for the world's best non-fiction book in English on foreign affairs that seeks to deepen public debate on significant international issues. Presented annually by the Lionel Gelber Foundation, in partnership with the Munk School of Global Affairs at the University of Toronto and Foreign Policy magazine, the winning author receives $15,000.

To be eligible for the 2012 Lionel Gelber Prize, books must be published between 1 January 2011 and 31 December 2011. The deadline for submissions is 31 October 2011. Manuscripts to be published between 31 October and 31 December 2011 may be submitted in galley form. A $50 per entry handling fee is required. Please make all cheques payable to the University of Toronto. Complete rules of eligibility are available on our website at www.utoronto.ca/munk/gelber.

This year's Lionel Gelber Prize winner is Shelagh D. Grant, for her book Polar Imperative: A History of Arctic Sovereignty in North America, published by Douglas & McIntyre.
