

TALKING PRISON CREATING ART AND

MAKING JUSTICE

MAKING JUSTICE
MAKING JUSTICE
MAKING JUSTICE

Years of resistance against state violence is presented through various art forms by former political prisoners of Iran. In this event, courageous men and women express their experiences through various art mediums. This one night performance and exhibition will be held at the Hart House Theatre on Saturday, June 19, 2010 at 8:00 pm. Swedish Iranian Band Abjeez Unplugged will present in solidarity their own original brand of Persian world pop.

designed by: www.lldesign.com

This event is based on the project Words, Movement and Colour: Remembering and Learning Through the Arts coordinated by Shahzad Mojab and Bethany J. Osborne. For more information email: shahzad.mojab@utoronto.ca or bethany.osborne@utoronto.ca

Tickets are $12 each and are available through the following venues:

UoftTix Box Office
uofttix.ca
(416) 978-8849

Tickets are available in these locations till June 13th only:
- Queen Gallery, 382 Queen St. East.
- Pegah Book Store, 5513 Yonge St.
- X-O City, 6123 Yonge St.
Location:
Hart House, University of Toronto
7 Hart House Circle
Toronto, Ont, Canada, M5S 3H3

Abjeez Unplugged presented by Art Beat Group

Persian slang for sister...and that's just what they are - Safoura and Melody Safavi.

Backed by guitarist Lars Johan Moberg the two abjee's present their own original band of Persian world pop!
Their lyrics, often humorous and sometimes rebellious, are written in Farsi, but the expressive groove of the music and the abjees' dramatic delivery break down all language barriers to create a new synthesis of cultures.

